NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Psalm 90:12 - So teach us to number our days, that we may get a heart of wisdom

Do you ever stop think about how BIG our God is? Take a look at the world around you. The world is a beautiful example of how amazing God's creation is. Think about the work you do every day at your job and at home. God continually blesses our efforts in whatever vocation you serve. Take a look at the ministries of our churches and our school. Decades of blessings can be seen in the ministries of our association that began long before any of us were here, and will continue long after any of us are here.

Our own life is very short and extremely fragile compared to the awesomeness of God. Psalm 90:12 offers up a prayer to God to make us realize how short our days are, and how great of a need that we have for our Father in heaven. While sin separates us from God and has brought death into our lives, we are reminded of God's continual deliverance, love, forgiveness, and grace.
